

Marius (Bernie) Bernon (2008)

©GWYLIEPHOTO

Ken MacManus (2009)

The Society's Mission Statement

The Society for the Arts in Dementia Care is built on the premise that people living with dementia have the right to dignity, to be heard and to be valued. The Society provides an interdisciplinary forum for creative expression in dementia care, bringing together academic research and practical knowledge through collaboration between the medical profession and the creative arts. The Society aims to disseminate knowledge and establish ties with dementia care organizations worldwide, improving the quality of life for people with dementia.

CONTACT US

The Society for the Arts in Dementia Care
#100-125 West 2nd Street
North Vancouver, BC
Canada V7M 1C5
E-mail: info@cecd-society.org
Tel: 604-986-6408
Office Hours: Mon-Sat (10am-5pm PT)

www.cecd-society.org

Please Note: Final Program TBA in June 2010

Registration Fees (Canadian Dollars)

Annual Society Membership Fee	$35
Conference Fee (Member)	$215
Conference Fee (Non-Member)	$250
Conference Fee (Student/Senior)	$175
Workshop Fee	$45
Conference Dinner Tickets	$40

www.cecd-society.org

For other payment methods,
e-mail info@cecd-society.org
or call 604-986-6408

Cancellation fee is $50.00.
No refunds after September 10, 2010.

Working together for a healthier world™

Pamphlet designed by Carmel Tanaka (2010)

CECD 2010

CREATIVE EXPRESSION, COMMUNICATION & DEMENTIA

The 5th International CECD Conference

HEALTH, AGING AND THE CREATIVE ARTS

Pre-Conference Workshops September 30, 2010

A Multi-Disciplinary Conference of Art and Sciences October 1 & 2, 2010

Penticton Lakeside Resort
21 Lakeshore Drive West
Penticton, BC V2A 7M5
Tel: 250-493-9772

THE SOCIETY
FOR THE ARTS IN DEMENTIA CARE

WWW.CECD-SOCIETY.ORG
INFO@CECD-SOCIETY.ORG

John Bilodeau

Local Festival and Special Event Information

The 30th Annual Okanagan Fall Wine Festival October 1-10, 2010

With more than 100 wineries within 45 minutes of Penticton, it's easy to find a way to sniff, swirl and sip your days away. Held at the peak of the grape harvest and the only event of its kind in North America, the Fall Wine Festival celebrates the culmination of another year's growing period.

Celebrating its 30th anniversary this year, the festival gives wine aficionados over 165 reasons to toast Canada's premier grape-growing region. Sip exceptional wines while admiring the brilliant array of autumn colours – it's a perfect pairing. From tours and tastings to grape stomps and educational seminars, the majority of vino-related activities take place in the vicinity of Penticton, making it an ideal base.

For a list of Okanagan Wine Festival events, go to www.owfs.com. For help planning your perfect Penticton getaway, call 1-800-663-5052, e-mail visitors@pentiction.org or go to www.tourismpentiction.com.

Conference Dinner Friday, October 1, 6:00 pm

An elegant dinner provides opportunities to mingle and network in a welcoming atmosphere directly on location at the Penticton Lakeside Resort in the Okanagan Valley.

Conference Overview and Pre-Conference Workshops

The 5th International Conference on Creative Expression, Communication and Dementia is being held at the Penticton Lakeside Resort in Penticton, BC, Canada, October 1 & 2, 2010, with pre-conference workshops on September 30, 2010. The overall theme of the conference is Health, Aging and the Creative Arts. The conference welcomes the participation of academics, researchers, practitioners and the public at large. It provides an excellent opportunity for networking, exchanging ideas and gaining insights into new trends and developments that can improve the lives of well seniors and seniors with cognitive impairments. The conference is hosted by the Society for the Art in Dementia Care with the generous support of Pfizer Canada Inc.

Featured Workshops Thursday, September 30, 2010

More Than Just a Red Nose:
Using Humour & Clown-Munication in Everyday Life
Bernie Warren, PhD

Seniors Make Plays From Their Stories
David Barnet

Creativity and Group Expression as a Means of Connection
Shelley Klammer

The Songwriting Works™ Experience:
Enhancing Health for Elders, their Families and Communities
Judith-Kate Friedman

Invited Speakers

Friday & Saturday, October 1 & 2, 2010

Asa Don Brown, PhD
Professional Therapist, Advocate, Motivational Speaker and Author – Williams Lake, BC

Bernie Warren, PhD
Professor of Drama in Education & Community and Founder of 'Fools For Health' – Windsor, ON

Dalia Gottlieb-Tanaka, PhD
Researcher on Creativity in Dementia Care and Founder of 'The Society of the Arts in Dementia Care' – Vancouver, BC

David Barnet
Professor of Drama and Founding Artistic Director of 'Catalyst Theatre' and 'GeriActors and Friends' – Edmonton, AB

Jeanne Sommerfield
Wellness Coordinator at 'The Harrison' at Elim Village – Surrey, BC

Judith-Kate Friedman
Founding Director of 'Songwriting Works™' – Washington, USA

Julie Gross McAdam, MA
Art Therapist and Founder of MAC.ART Program – Melbourne, Australia

Pamela Brett-MacLean, PhD
Director of the Arts & Humanities in Health & Medicine Program – Edmonton, AB

Patricia Bruce
Art Therapist for People with Dementia – Victoria, BC

Peter Graf, PhD
Professor of Psychology and Director of the NSERC and CIHR funded Memory and Cognition Laboratory – Vancouver, BC

Shelley Klammer
Expressive Artist and Therapeutic Art Instructor – Vancouver, BC