The Society's Mission Statement

The Society for the Arts in Dementia Care is built on the premise that people living with dementia have the right to dignity, to be heard and to be valued. The Society provides an interdisciplinary forum for creative expression in dementia care, bringing together academic research and practical knowledge through collaboration between the medical profession and the creative arts. The Society aims to disseminate knowledge and establish ties with dementia care organizations worldwide, improving the quality of life for people with dementia.

Waterfront Hotel – Downtown Burlington & Social Dinner

Welcome to the CECD Conference at the Waterfront Hotel!

The Waterfront Hotel – Downtown is a Burlington landmark, well-situated, less than an hour from Toronto and Niagara Falls. During the Conference breaks, stroll the parkland walking trails along the waterfront or enjoy shoreline views while casually dining inside or on the restaurant's upscale patio.
