

FREE SEMINAR
ON A NEW ASSESSMENT TOOL
FOR SENIORS WITH DEMENTIA
ACCOMPANIED BY MINDSCAPES 2008 ARTSHOW

CREATIVE-EXPRESSIVE ABILITIES ASSESSMENT

- A tool which is based on solid quantitative and qualitative research
- Excellent way to monitor clients in a range of domains, such as memory & attention

DALIA GOTTLIEB-TANAKA, PHD
HILARY LEE, MSc
PETER GRAF, PHD

The CEAA instrument is designed for obtaining in-depth information about the expressive abilities of seniors with dementia. The instrument focuses on a wide range of abilities that have shown improvements when seniors participated in creative activity programs

Tuesday, September 23, 2008
12:00 – 1:30pm, Room 421, 4th floor

Centre for Population Health Promotion Research
426 - 2206 East Mall, LPC Building
Vancouver, BC, V6R 1Z3

Intended for
Creative Expression Facilitators, Administrators and Researchers
Learn to

- Observe clients' creative abilities in a systematic way and monitor changes in abilities over time
- Document with reliable results for reporting in meetings with colleagues, administration & families
- Use the tool as a guide in planning your activities to suit each client
- Use in planning budgets for effective recreation activities & guidance in hiring facilitators

Limited space
Please RSVP by sending an e-mail to cecd08@gmail.com