

The Society's Mission Statement

The Society for the Arts in Dementia Care is built on the premise that people living with dementia have the right to dignity, to be heard and to be valued. The Society provides an interdisciplinary forum for creative expression in dementia care, bringing together academic research and practical knowledge through collaboration between the medical profession and the creative arts. The Society aims to disseminate knowledge and establish ties with dementia care organizations worldwide, improving the quality of life for people with dementia.

Special Events and Program Information

Mindscapes 2008 Art Exhibit
Open to the public: June 2 to 16, 2008
 8:30am to 5:30pm, except Sunday
Gala opening, May 30, 2008 (by invitation)

The Creative Expression Communication and Dementia Conference will be held in conjunction with Mindscapes 2008, an umbrella event that hosts to an exhibition of artwork produced by seniors with dementia. In the past Mindscapes has held art exhibitions such as Les Impatients, a showing of outsider art produced by people with psychiatric problems, titled specifically to reject the label of “patients” and embrace the title “impatiens” as people anxious to create. Mindscapes honors a means of spontaneous expression that is designed to stir the emotions, even as artistic expression offers an outlet to people of all ages and all conditions.
